This image shows a single sheet of white graph paper with a light gray grid. The paper has several horizontal and vertical lines forming squares. There are numerous small black specks scattered across the surface, likely due to dust or scanning artifacts. Handwritten in dark ink are three distinct marks: a large, stylized checkmark or 'V' shape located in the upper left quadrant; a smaller, open 'U' shaped curve positioned directly below the first mark; and a horizontal line with a small hook or tail extending to the right, situated in the lower right area. The overall appearance is that of a used piece of stationery.
